AUTHORITY IS GIVEN.

Minister Powell Gave His Assent to the Statement Made.

WAR SHOULD CEASE.

Periodical Revolutions Endanger the Peace of All the Nations and Are Particularly Hurtful to San Domingo.

Washington, Nov. 26.—It is stated at the state department that the statement attributed to United States Minister Powell in the press dispatches that periodical revolutions ought to cease because they interrupted commercial relations with other countries and augmented the debt of Santo Domingo which was without means to pay foreign creditors, that these periodical revolutions endangered the peace of his government and of the governments of other nations and that the present revolution, if continued, will imperil the sovereignty of Santo

GENERAL JIMENEZ.

Domingo, is made on the minister's own authority and without special direction from the state department. This does not mean that the state department withholds approval of the minister's statement, which in fact is, it is pointed out, directly in line with the representations which United States Minister Beaupre was instructed to make to the government of Columbia. It is the intention of the department to hold the new revolutionary government to all engagements respecting arbitration and concessions which were entered into under the administration of Wos y Gil, notwithstanding the disposition shown by the Jimenes party to disavow these agreements.

ARTICLES WERE SIGNED.

San Domingo, Nov. 26.—The articles of the capitulation of San Domingo were signed by President Wos y Gil and the ministers of the United States, Belgium, Hayti and Spain. The conditions provide full guarantees for the protection of the inhabitants and all property.

AWARDED FITZSIMMONS.

He Gets the Decision Over Gardner In the Twentieth Round.

San Francisco, Nov. 26.—Robert Fitzsimmons and George Gardner did not draw a crowded house Wednesday night when they battled for the lightweight championship before the Yosemite Athletic club. The big pavilion was only fairly filled, a great contrast to the usual state of affairs when Fitz has fought here before.

"Lanky" Bob has always been a favorite, and he was so installed in the betting. During the day he ruled favorite at 10 to 9, but towards evening the rumor was circulated that he was not in prime condition, and Gardner went up to even money. Later Fitz's admirer came forward with their coin, and when the men entered the ring the betting was 10 to 9 in Fitz's favor. It was noticeable that the usual number of outside patrons of the prize ring were absent. The 6000 people were, with few exceptions, from San Francisco.

No fight of recent times has been the cause of more guess work than this one. The fight went the twenty rounds. In the last round Fitz landed a left for the face. In a mixup Gardner bombarded at Fitz's stomach, but the blows were blocked. Gardner got in a right left to the stomach and backed two left swings for the body. Gardner swung a right to the body, and in a mixup landed several rights and lefts to the body. They clinched, and the referee could hardly separate them. Fitz sent a left straight to the face, and both clung to each other. Gardner done most of the hanging on. Gardner was clinging to Fitz, and Referee Graney could not separate them before the final gong rung. Graney promptly gave the decision to Fitzsimmons, which was greeted with cheers.

ACTION BY THE SENATE.

The House Insists Upper Body Has to Do Something.

STAND OF SPEAKER.

Cannon and His Colleagues Say the Cuban Reciprocity Bill Must Have Final Disposition in a Few Days.

Washington, Nov. 26.—Until the senate either passes the Cuban bill or rejects it, no proposition to adjourn the extra session of the Fifty-sixth congress will be entertained by the house. This is the declared position of that body, and indicates no change from the stand taken by Speaker Cannon and his colleagues. As this fact has become understood by the leaders of the senate there is likely to be no effort made by that body to bring the extra session to an end until it lapses into a regular session Dec. 2. Speaker Cannon is making all possible speed in the organization of the house.

His work of the make up of committees is progressing satisfactorily. He has received the recommendations of Representative Williams, the Democratic floor leader of the minority committee assignments, and this phase of the work was practically concluded at an extended conference with the minority leader and the speaker. While Mr. Cannon will not make predictions as to the day he will announce the committees, the announcements are looked for Monday next.

With the committees appointed there need be no lack of work in the house. Several thousand bills have been introduced at the present session, and these will be available for consideration. The estimates from the various executive departments of the government, while not officially available until the convening of the regular session are being referred unofficially, and the necessary preliminary work on them may be taken up.

In taking their stand against adjourning the extra session until the Cuban legislation is disposed of, house leaders declare they are simply emphasizing the purpose for which the session was called, and are acting in good faith, with no disposition to reflect in any way upon the senate.

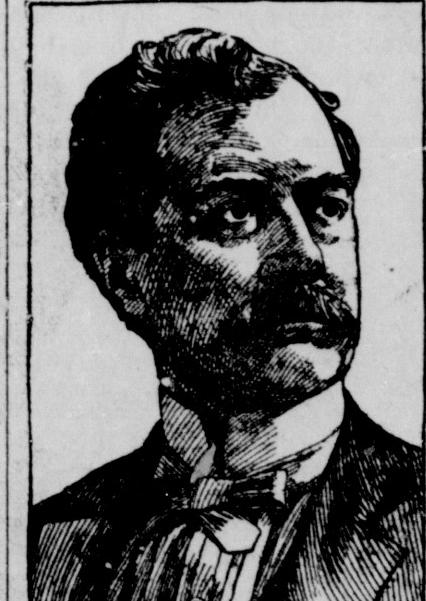

On the senate side, it is said, the agreement to fix a time for a vote insures the passage of the Cuban bill, but that notwithstanding that fact, no proposition for the final adjournment of the extra session will emanate from the senate. All such resolutions have heretofore originated in the house, and the senate does not wish to break that unwritten law.

OPPOSED BY CARMACK.

Senator From Tennessee Does Not Favor Cuban Bill.

Washington, Nov. 26.—The first speech on the merits of the Cuban bill was made by Mr. Carmack (Dem., Tenn.), who opposed the bill, and said that nothing less than urgent tariff revision would give the necessary relief. There was further debate between Mr. Hale (Rep., Maine), Teller (Dem., Colo.), and Newlands on the Newlands resolution, in which Mr. Newlands further outlined his views, and Mr. Hale deprecated all agitation on the subject.

Mr. Teller declared that Cuba was in no sense a dependency of the United States. The senate adjourned until Friday.

SENATOR EDWARD W. CARMACK OF TENNESSEE.

Mr. Carmack said he was willing to hear any appeal to conscience and, given a treaty that was liberal to Cuba and just to the United States, he would vote for it. But no man could pledge his faith for a treaty which itself violated the pledged faith of the country, and on the pleas of opening the markets for Cuba, slammed the door against 40,000,000 customers in South America. If this measure would reduce the price of sugar it would be an argument in its favor, but the larger part of the sugar imports would still be subject to duty, and the tariff would be added to all.

ARTICLE NO. I.

Curing and Preserving Meats.

The Eagle is offering a cash prize of $250, and a second prize of one Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, for best articles on Putting up Meats—bacon, pork, pickled meat, sausages, etc., the object being to produce the most edible and most salable meats, for ready sale, ready consumption, or to keep over winter, and to have some good dishes available at any time. The winners will be announced in the weekly Eagle of Dec. 17, instead of Dec. 10, as announced last week. All articles must be in by Dec. 8. Judging will be announced next week's issue.

we lived on a raised and cured bacon having good success saving both beef and bacon.

Following are the simple plans we pursued:

We killed wherever possible, in quite cold and preferable clear weather. We let the meat lie unsalted over night, to make sure that the animal heat had quite subsided; then cut it up, trimming the sides and joints very smoothly; then rubbed them well with good coarse salt. The cutting and salting was done on the north side of the house, as being less exposed to the sun, and therefore colder. If the joints were very large, it was thought advisable to make an incision on flesh side, down to the bone, that the salt might penetrate. Joints and sides were then packed in a stout, close box, skin side downward, as closely as possible; box was then covered very closely, first with a thick cloth, then with heavy boards or a good lid.

After lying in salt at least two weeks, the meat was hung in the smoke house (which should have a high roof and close walls) and smoked with a slow, steady fire; green hickory wood was preferred both for steady smoke and clean, good flavor. A frequent addition to the fire of dried red pepper was thought preventive of the attacks of the fly. Two weeks was deemed long enough for smoke-drying, especially if the weather was mainly warm and dry. Sometimes, after smoking, the joints were well wrapped in thick paper and again packed in wood ashes. At other times they were dipped for a moment in boiling water, wiped dry and exposed to the sun a few minutes till thoroughly dry, then sewed up in cloth and plastered thickly over with flour paste. They were then packed or hung, as most convenient.

Receipt for pickle, for either beef or pork:

To 100 pounds of beef, 1 quart salt, $\frac{3}{4}$ pints of molasses or 1 pound of brown sugar, 1 tablespoonful salt petre. Put these in water enough to cover beef, boil skim and pour over beef when cold. Weight down meat to keep well under brine. If scum rises, reboil the brine and skim well. Keep weighted and cover barrel well.

THANKSGIVING OBSERVED.

All Business Houses Closed—Union Service at Methodist Church.

Yesterday was calm and beautiful—an ideal Thanksgiving. Every business house in the city was closed in observance of the day, and the people in the country remained at home to enjoy the holiday.

Union Thanksgiving services were held at the Methodist church and Rev. A. M. Stewart preached an excellent sermon. His text was from the seventeenth chapter of Luke, the words being "Where are the nine?" The sermon was based on the story of the ten lepers who were healed, only one of whom returned to praise Christ. A strong application was made to present conditions in the church and the disposition of nine-tenths of the people to run after worldly pleasures.

At the conclusion of the service a collection was taken up for the needy.

CX-BOVETT.

Mr. Wade Cox of this city and Miss Bertha Boyett of College Station, were married in Hearne yesterday morning by Rev. Jewell Howard. The marriage was a surprise to friends and relatives alike. Miss Boyett went up to Hearne yesterday morning via the L. & G. N. and Mr. Cox went by the H. & T. C. at 10:12 a.m. Licenses were procured by the young man before his departure. They were married about noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Myers where they enjoyed a sumptuous Thanksgiving dinner. They returned yesterday afternoon and are at home with the groom's parents.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Boyett of College Station, and a young lady of many graces and accomplishments. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Cox, and a genial and popular young man.

The Eagle extends congratulations.

Sensible and Timely.

Accidents happen on railroads and off railroads, in town and out of town, in business and in pleasure, when you expect them and when you don't expect them. Listen to the many serious accidents you hear of every day, and ask yourself if it is not wisdom and good business judgement to get an Accident Policy at a little cost and be fully protected. Don't forget that we represent three of the best casualty or accident companies in the United States and can give you any kind of policy you desire.
